

The RIVER - Folkestone

	Friday 8 July The RIVER	Saturday 9 July Surrender to Jesus	Sunday 10 July Intimacy with Father	Monday 11 July Encounter Holy Spirit
TIME	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue	TIME
10:00		One Jesus - four faces We will be exploring the four faces of Jesus, as represented by the four gospel. We will also look at what it means to follow Jesus through death and into resurrection life		Going deeper with Holy Spirit Before the River of God can rise up in Folkestone and flow through the streets once again, we need to encounter the Holy Spirit rising up in us and overflowing from us	10:00
10:30			Encountering the love of the Father We will be looking through Middle Eastern eyes as we take fresh look at the story of the lost son in Luke 15			10:30
11:00			This morning's sessions will include worship, teaching, discipleship groups, prayer ministry and time to be still, relax and soak in God's River		Walk up to Harbour Church (with pre-banquet drinks on arrival)		11:00
11:30			The Father's Banquet What better way to end our morning of basking in the Father's love, than to sit down and enjoy a meal together				11:30
12:00		Folkestone River Walk Join with us as we follow the course of the underground river in Folkestone, once so prominent in the development of the town. Starting from the grotto in Radnor Park, we will follow the course of St Eanswythe's Water as it joins together with Pent Stream and Martha's Dyke before finally flowing out into the harbour		Demonstrating God's love The good news of the gospel has to be good news to us, before good news through us	12:00
12:30						12:30
13:00		Refreshments and lunch are also included			13:00
13:30			The Father's Banquet What better way to end our morning of basking in the Father's love, than to sit down and enjoy a meal together		13:30
14:00		Folkestone River Walk Join with us as we follow the course of the underground river in Folkestone, once so prominent in the development of the town. Starting from the grotto in Radnor Park, we will follow the course of St Eanswythe's Water as it joins together with Pent Stream and Martha's Dyke before finally flowing out into the harbour		Demonstrating God's power We can't give away what we haven't first received.	14:00
14:30						14:30
15:00			Demonstrating God's love The good news of the gospel has to be good news to us, before good news through us		15:00
15:30			Demonstrating God's love The good news of the gospel has to be good news to us, before good news through us		15:30
16:00			Demonstrating God's love The good news of the gospel has to be good news to us, before good news through us		16:00
16:30		Feedback & debrief	Feedback & debrief	Feedback & debrief	16:30
17:00					17:00
17:30					17:30
18:00					18:00
18:30					18:30
19:00					19:00
19:30					19:30
19:30	SKCC	Welcome to the RIVER When Jesus was baptised, the whole family of God turned up. We too, are now invited to step into the water to have our own encounter with Father, Son and Holy Spirit	The Bread & Wine We will look at the significance of, and taste for ourselves, the fresh bread and mature wine Jesus shared with his disciples at the last supper	The Holy Spirit at Jesus' baptism We will return to Jesus' baptism to discover the significance of the Holy Spirit descending on Jesus. We will also give plenty of space for whatever the Holy Spirit wants to do.	19:30
20:00					20:00
20:30					20:30

KEY

These sessions are open to all

These sessions are for those who have booked onto the full RIVER experience